April 18, 1925

Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Travis and Child

Mr. and Mrs. Travis, and child, recently left the shores of America for French-Indo-China. A farewell service was held in the school, at which the testimony and hopes of the volunteers for the needy land south of China were given with much unction. Mrs. Travis told something of her experience with an unyielded spirit, a stubbornness to yield on her part to the whole will of God for her life. After complete consecration was made the joy of the Lord filled her soul, and that same joy was manifest to all who attended the farewell. Mr. Travis, while at the Moody Institute, was shown maps of fields, with the figures accompanying, and was then first moved to consider service abroad, but it took quite a while for the missionary vision to become a part of his nature. But now the one passion of his heart is to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ to the millions of French-Indo-China. They will first go to Paris to study the French language.

A.W. April 18, 1925 p. 271