Subject Fw: Website Recapping Homecoming Weekend's Tribute to Vietnam Martyrs

Dear Friends:

The following message from Melissa Hickey is self-explanatory. For those of us who couldn't be at the Nyack Homecoming weekend memorializing our martyred colleagues, it is a moving experience to click on the various links--and remember--as we give thanks to our God for all the spiritual victories that have taken place in Viet Nam in the years since 1962 and 1968. I know you share my deep gratitude to Nyack College for this special remembrance.

Melissa, thank you for sending this web link. Please accept my thanks on behalf of our group for your part in preparing for this special weekend. And will you also convey the profound thanks of the former Alliance missionaries to Viet Nam to the Alumni Association and to the Homecoming Committee. In honoring these, our friends and colleagues, you have not only honored each of the rest of us but have brought praise and glory to the One whom we continue to serve. It is our prayer that the reminder of the service of these missionaries will motivate and encourage those students on campus who are struggling with the cost of yielding all to Christ. There is no more that we can offer to Him than our lives and our joyful obedience to His call.

Sincerely,

Marjorie Cline

Marjorie,

Thank you for all your help in communicating with your contacts about the Nyack College Homecoming events honoring our alumni who were martyred in Vietnam.

We have set up a web-page which contains a photo gallery of the events, the audio of Tim Ziemer's message, and some written speeches and special tributes. The link is:

www.nyack.edu/homecoming

Please feel free to share that link with your contacts.

Thanks again and many blessings to you and all who helped,

Melissa
